

NZX RELEASE

12 August 2022

Management update – Chief Financial Officer

---

Kiwi Property has today advised that Gavin Parker, Chief Financial Officer, has resigned to pursue an external opportunity. He will remain with the company until after the release of its interim results at the end of November, ensuring a smooth transition.

Kiwi Property Chief Executive Officer, Clive Mackenzie, said:

“Gavin has had a pronounced impact on Kiwi Property over his 20-year career with the company. His commercial acumen, strategic insight, institutional knowledge, and commitment to creating value for our shareholders have made him an outstanding CFO and a trusted advisor to our Board and management. We wish Gavin every success in his future endeavours.”

Recruitment for a new Chief Financial Officer is now underway. An announcement regarding the successful candidate will be made in due course.

Ends
