Management update – GM Digital

Kiwi Property today advised that Angela Henderson, GM Digital, has resigned to pursue an external opportunity and will depart the company in late April.

Kiwi Property Chief Executive Officer Clive Mackenzie said: "Angela has made an enormous impact on the company, leading our digital transformation over the past three years and overseeing the implementation of our new ERP system. Under her guidance, we've made important progress on our data and technology strategies. I'd like to thank Angela for her contribution to Kiwi Property and wish her all the best for the future."
