TeamTalk Limited appoints Jason Bull as Chief Financial Officer

TeamTalk Limited announce today the appointment of Jason Bull as its Chief Financial Officer. He will be a member of the TeamTalk Leadership Team reporting to Chief Executive Andrew Miller.

Jason will take up the role on 25 October and following a transition period Geoff Davis the Finance Director will move out of the business but will remain on the board as a non-executive director.

Jason has held a number of Senior Leadership positions across Telecommunications and Transformational Logistics industries including accountabilities across Finance, Contracts, Procurement and Inventory Management functions which included 11 years at Alcatel-Lucent NZ where he held the roles of Chief Financial Officer and GM Business Operations & Transformation.

“We are excited to have Jason join our Leadership Team. He’s a talented financial executive with significant operations and transformational experience,” commented Andrew Miller.
