TeamTalk engages Cameron Partners to assist with a strategic review

NZX listed TeamTalk Limited (“TeamTalk”) has engaged investment banking advisors, Cameron Partners Limited (“Cameron Partners”) to work with both the Board and the incoming Chief Executive, Andrew Miller, to assist with a review of TeamTalk’s strategy and the subsequent evaluation of different options.

TeamTalk Board Chairman Roger Sowry says: “it is the right time to bring in the capabilities of Cameron Partners who can assist our new Chief Executive with one of his top priorities which is a deep strategic review of the business”.

Cameron Partners is a leading New Zealand independent investment bank with offices in both Wellington and Auckland. It is the New Zealand global alliance partner of Rothschild, one of the world’s leading investment banking houses with offices in over 40 countries.
