AGL appoints new Director

9 March 2009

AGL Energy Limited (AGL) Chairman Mark Johnson today announced the appointment of Mr John Stanhope as a non-executive director on the AGL Board.

Mr Stanhope, 58, is currently Chief Financial Officer at Telstra Corporation Ltd (Telstra).

Mr Stanhope's career with Telstra spans a period of more than 40 years, including more than 20 years in senior finance roles.

Mr Johnson said "Mr Stanhope has extensive experience in finance, corporate strategy, and risk management as well as in systems development to support large customer bases. He has played a leading role in transforming Telstra from a state owned enterprise to one of Australia's largest public companies which is at the forefront of the telecommunications industry. We look forward to his contribution to the AGL Board. "

A career summary for Mr Stanhope is attached.

About AGL

AGL is Australia's largest integrated renewable energy and is taking action toward creating a sustainable energy future for our investors, communities and customers. Drawing on over 170 years of experience, AGL operates retail and merchant energy businesses, power generation assets and an upstream gas portfolio. AGL has Australia's largest retail energy and dual fuel customer base. AGL has a diverse power generation portfolio including base, peaking and intermediate generation plants, spread across traditional thermal generation as well as renewable sources including hydro, wind, landfill gas and biomass. AGL is Australia's largest private owner and operator of renewable energy assets and is looking to further expand this position by exploring a suite of low emission and renewable energy generation development opportunities.
