Jabal Sayid Project Exploitation (Mining) Licence

In response to a number of enquiries from shareholders and other interested parties, the Company advises that the exploitation (mining) licence for the Jabal Sayid Project is still in the process of being granted. The Company is in communication with representatives of the relevant Saudi government authority, who have advised that the final approval is subject to the availability of the relevant approvals committee members. The committee is made up of representatives of diversified government organisations who have conflicting schedules and at this stage they are attempting to organise a date to meet. The Company has been advised that the approving authority is satisfied with the information provided by the Company to date and no further information has been requested.
