International Wine Investment Fund

Removal From ASX Official List

Approval has been received from the Australian Stock Exchange (ASX) to remove the International Wine Investment Fund (IWI) from the ASX official List from a date to be determined by the ASX.

After consultation with the ASX, IWI has been advised that the date will be 21 July 2009.

As previously advised the Unitholders of IWI approved the reconstruction of the IWI in an extraordinary general meeting on 25 June, 2009. As a consequence, an application was made to the ASX for the Units to be removed from the ASX official list. Details of the reconstruction were set out in the explanatory memorandum accompanying the notice of meeting.
