

ASX/MEDIA RELEASE

1 May 2009

Ludowici wins AUD$19M worth of new contract work in China

Ludowici Limited (ASX:LDW) today announced it had won contracts amounting to AUD$19 million to supply mineral processing equipment for two new coal handling plants as part of a major expansion of the Shanxi Coking Coal Group in China.

Patrick Largier, Chief Executive Officer of Ludowici said that the company has been working closely with John Finlay Engineering Pty Ltd, a leading provider of mineral processing solutions to the global resources industry, to win this project.

The contracts will be delivered progressively over the second half of 2009 and the first half of 2010.

Mr Largier said that this contract further demonstrates the high international regard held for Ludowici minerals processing equipment. He said that despite the current challenging economic circumstances, Ludowici is still receiving a significant level of enquiry from current and potential customers particularly in China, Australia and South America.

About Ludowici

Ludowici Limited (ASX:LDW) was established in 1858 and its strategic objective is to become a leading supplier of separation and wear resistant technology and services to the global mineral processing industry. To meet this challenge Ludowici has emphasized a clear business strategy of development and ownership of world class technology as the essential backbone of its business, supported by outstanding service to its customers. Ludowici listed on the ASX in 1911 and is based in Brisbane with offices in USA, Chile, China, India, New Zealand and South Africa.

<ENDS>

For further information contact:

Patrick Largier
Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director
Ph: (07) 3121 2903
www.ludowici.com.au

Jim MacDonald
Chief Financial Officer
Ph: (07) 3121 2903