Robin Khuda appointed Group CFO

PIPE Networks Limited (ASX:PWK) today announced the appointment of Mr Robin Khuda as the new Group Chief Financial Officer effective 20 July 2009.

Mr Khuda is CPA qualified with a MBA in Finance from the University of Manchester, UK and a Bachelor of Business in Accounting from University of Technology Sydney, Australia.

Mr Khuda's previous appointments include GM Operations and Financial Controller at Fujitsu Australia & New Zealand, CFO and Head of Commercial at Silk Telecom, and Finance Manager at SingTel Optus.

Mr Khuda has undertaken executive programs in Mergers & Acquisitions and Corporate Strategy at Wharton Business School and Harvard Business School respectively.

As Group CFO, Mr Khuda will be responsible for overseeing all financial strategy, procedures, and controls, and for assisting PIPE Networks to continue to meet its business objectives.

Mr Bevan Slattery, PIPE Networks' Managing Director said "We are delighted that Robin is joining our management team as our new Group CFO. We believe that his experience and knowledge within the ICT and telecommunications industries and strong track record in M&A activities will greatly assist PIPE Networks to continue to meet and exceed our plans for growth."
