The Offer is being made under section 708AA of the Corporations Act. This document is not a prospectus and does not contain all of the information that would ordinarily be contained in a prospectus.

Shareholders should be aware that an investment in Q Ltd involves many risks which may be higher than risks associated with investments in other companies. Investors should consider the investment in Q Ltd speculative. If you have any questions about what to do or whether to accept the Offer you should consult your professional adviser without delay.

No person is authorised to give any information or to make any representation in connection with the Offer which is not contained in this Offer Document. Any information or representation not so contained may not be relied on as having been authorised by Q Ltd in connection with the Offer.

1.2 Eligibility

Applications for the New Shares by Eligible Shareholders can only be made on an original Entitlement and Acceptance Form, as sent with this Offer Document. The Entitlement and Acceptance Form sets out an Eligible Shareholder's entitlement to participate in the Offer.

2. Details of the Offer

2.1 Offer

Q Ltd is making a pro rata non-renounceable offer of approximately 28,170,542 New Shares each at an issue price of 8.5 cents to Eligible Shareholders on the basis of one (1) New Share for every one (1) Existing Share held on the Record Date (Offer). Where the determination of the Entitlement of any Eligible Shareholder results in a fraction of a Share, such fraction will be rounded up to the nearest whole Share. The Offer is not underwritten. The Company will endeavour to place the Shortfall Shares, if any, within 2 months from the Closing Date and will issue those Shortfall Shares on the same terms as those New Shares being offered to existing shareholders or otherwise within an exemption in section 708 of the Corporations Act.

Q Ltd will accept Entitlement and Acceptance Forms until 5.00 pm EST on the Closing Date being 28 October 2009 or such other date as the Directors in their absolute discretion shall determine, subject to the requirements of the ASX Listing Rules.

Your Entitlement is shown on the Entitlement and Acceptance Form accompanying this Offer. You may accept the Offer only by applying for Shares on a personalised Entitlement and Acceptance Form sent with this Offer Document. If you have misplaced or lost your Entitlement and Acceptance Form, please contact the Company for a replacement form.

You may accept for all or only part of your Entitlement.

Acceptance of a completed Entitlement and Acceptance Form by Q Ltd creates a legally binding contract between the applicant and Q Ltd for the number of New Shares accepted or deemed to be accepted by the applicant. The Entitlement and Acceptance Form does not need to be signed by the applicant to be legally binding. The Offer and contract formed on acceptance are governed by the applicable law of Victoria.

If the Entitlement and Acceptance Form is not completed correctly it may still be treated as valid. The Directors' decision as to whether to treat the acceptance as valid and how to construe, amend or complete the Entitlement and Acceptance Form is final.

New Shares offered by this Offer Document are expected to be issued, and security holding statements dispatched, on the date specified in the timetable.

It is the responsibility of applicants to determine their allocation prior to trading in the New Shares. Applicants who sell New Shares before they receive their holding statements will do so at their own risk.

2.2 Purpose of the Offer

Q Ltd will raise net proceeds of approximately $2.35 million through the Offer, after deducting expenses of the Offer of approximately $35,000 as set out below (assuming the Offer is fully subscribed or the Shortfall (if any) is placed by the Company). The net proceeds raised will be used to fund part of the cash component of the final earn-out liabilities in respect of acquisitions made by the Company which are due for payment in the first half of FY2010.

By way of background information, Q Ltd stated in its half year report for the half year ended 31 December 2008 that:

“Final earn-out liabilities in respect of acquisitions made by the Company are due for payment in first half FY2010. The balance sheet which is included in the financial statements for first half FY2009 includes estimated earn-outs of $5.9 million. In calculating this amount, the Board has made assumptions about the level of profitability from those acquisitions during second half FY2009. Under the contracts for the acquisitions, a component of the earn-outs is payable in cash and a component is payable in Q Ltd shares. Based on estimated liabilities of $5.9 million, the cash component will be up to $4.8 million, with the balance payable in Q Ltd shares. The Company intends to fund the cash component of the earn-outs using cash from cashflow from operations, modest level of debt and capital raising.”

At the date of issuing this Offer Document, the Company has not yet reached agreement with its bankers to provide debt finance to assist with the funding of the earn-out payments. As a matter of precaution, the Company has elected to raise sufficient capital through this Offer to satisfy the earn-out liabilities. In the event that it is successful in securing a debt facility, the Company may choose not to place the entire Shortfall (if any) occurring under this Offer.

Any debt financing, if available, may involve financial covenants which limit the Company's operations. If the Company cannot obtain such additional capital, it may be required to reduce the scope of any expansion which could adversely affect its business, operating results and financial condition.

The expenses of the Offer are anticipated to be as follows:

Expenses:	$
Legal fees	5,000
Corporate advisory fees	10,000
ASX listing fees	8,000
Printing and postage	12,000
Total expenses	35,000

In determining Entitlements, any fractional entitlements have been rounded up to the nearest whole number of Shares.

It is the responsibility of applicants to determine their allocation prior to trading in the New Shares. The sale by applicants of New Shares prior to the receipt of a holding statement is at the applicant's own risk.

The Company participates in the Clearing House Electronic Subregister System, known as CHESS. ASX Settlement and Transfer Corporation Pty Ltd ACN 008 504 532 (ASTC), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the ASX, operates CHESS in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules and Securities Clearing House Business Rules.

A CHESS statement or Issuer Sponsored statement will routinely be sent to Shareholders at the end of any calendar month during which the balance of their holding changes. Shareholders may request a statement at any other time, however there may be a charge associated with the provision of this service.

2.10 Taxation implications

2.11 Enquiries

If after reading this Offer Document, you have any questions about any aspect of an investment in Q Ltd, please contact your professional adviser. Any administrative questions can also be directed to Cynthia Chan, the Company Secretary, on (+61 3) 9691 4900 or cchan@gxq.com.au.

3. Risk Factors

Activities in Q Ltd and its controlled entities, as in any business, are subject to risks, which may impact on the Company's future performance. Q Ltd and its controlled entities have implemented appropriate strategies, actions, systems and safeguards for known risks, however, some are outside its control.

The Directors consider that the following summary, which is not exhaustive, represents some of the specific risk factors which shareholders need to be aware of in evaluating the Company's business and risks of increasing your investment in the Company.

Shareholders should carefully consider the following factors:

3.1 Operating

The operations of Q Ltd may be affected by various factors, including operational and technical difficulties encountered in interactive advertising, difficulties in its information technology infrastructure, unanticipated problems which may affect costs, industrial and environmental accidents and unexpected shortages or increases in the costs of labour and consumables. The Company may be subject to litigation involving intellectual property, product liabilities or other consumer issues; unanticipated operational and technical difficulties; and uninsured losses or liabilities. Alternative technologies could also cause competition for markets and resources.

3.2 Rights Issue Risk

Existing Shareholder's interests will be diluted if they do not take up their Entitlements.

3.3 General Economic Climate

Factors such as inflation, currency fluctuations, interest rates, levels of tax, taxation law and accounting practices, government legislation or intervention, supply and demand of capital and industrial disruption have an impact on business costs, natural disasters, social upheaval and war may have an impact on prices, operating costs and market conditions generally. Accordingly, Q Ltd's future possible revenue, operations and profitability can be affected by these factors, which are beyond the control of the Company and its Directors.

3.4 Share Market Conditions

There are general risks associated with any investment and the share market. The price of the Company's Shares may rise and fall depending on a range of factors beyond the Company's control and which are unrelated to the Company's financial performance. These factors may include movements on international share markets, interest rates and exchange rates, together with domestic and international economic conditions, inflation rates, commodity supply and demand, government taxation and royalties, war, global hostilities and acts of terrorism.

3.5 Going Concern

In its 2009 Annual Report, the Company stated that:

"The financial report has been prepared on the going concern basis, which assumes continuity of normal business activities and the realisation of assets and the settlement of liabilities in the ordinary course of business.

As at 30 June 2009 the consolidated entity and the Company has an excess of current liabilities over current assets of $4,303,658 and $4,193,209. The deficiency is primarily caused by the requirement to recognise the quantum of various vendor earn out payments of an estimated $1.1 million in shares and $4.8 million in cash, that will be paid by first half of FY 2010, as a current liability within the balance sheet.

Notwithstanding this deficiency, the financial report has been prepared on a going concern basis on the basis of the following assumptions:-

- (i) The Group continuing to generate sufficient operating cash flows to enable its trading debts to be paid as and when they are payable;
- (ii) The ability of the Group to successfully raise additional debt facilities; and
- (iii) The Company successfully raising additional equity funding.

At the date of this report and having considered the above position, the directors are confident that the Company will be able to continue as going concerns given the following:

- (a) The Consolidated Entity generated operating cash flows of $1.873 million for the year ended 30 June 2009.
- (b) The Company is in the process of formalising additional debt facilities which will provide at least $500,000 additional funds to meet present obligations;
- (c) A successful rights issue of $1 million was made in August 2009. The directors believe that they will be able to raise additional funds in future periods.

Notwithstanding this there is significant uncertainty whether the Company and the Consolidated Entity will continue as going concerns and, therefore, whether they will realise their assets and extinguish their liabilities in the normal course of business and at the amounts stated in the financial report

The financial report does not include adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts or to the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company and the consolidated entity not continue as going concerns."

At the date of this Offer Document and having considered the above position as it now applies to the Company and having considered that at the date of this Offer Document, the Company has not yet reached agreement with its bankers to provide debt finance to assist with the funding of the earn-out payments, the directors are confident that the Company will be able to continue as a going concern. As a matter of precaution, the Company has elected to raise sufficient capital through this Offer to satisfy the earn-out liabilities

3.6 Reliance on Key Personnel

Q Ltd's prospects depend in part on the ability of its executive officers and senior management to operate effectively, both independently and as a group. To manage its growth, Q Ltd must attract and retain additional highly qualified management, technical, sales and marketing personnel and continue to implement and improve operational, financial and management information systems. Q Ltd has in place service contracts with select employees and provides attractive employment conditions to assist in the retention of key personnel.

3.7 Speculative Nature of Investment

The above list of risk factors ought not to be taken as exhaustive of the risks faced by the Company or by investors in it. Other factors not specifically referred to above, may in the future materially affect the financial performance of Q Ltd and the value of the New Shares offered under this Offer Document. Therefore, the New Shares offered pursuant to this Offer carry no guarantee with respect to the payment of dividends, returns of capital or the market value of the New Shares. Potential investors should consider that the investment in the Company is speculative and should consult their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for New Shares.
