Dear SGL Shareholder

AGL Energy Limited's Takeover Bid for Sydney Gas Limited - Notice of Compulsory Acquisition

As you may be aware, AGL Energy Limited (AGL) has announced an unconditional off-market takeover offer (the Offer) for all the ordinary shares in Sydney Gas Limited (SGL) at a price of 42.5 cents per SGL share. The Offer has now closed.

Our records indicate that you have not accepted the Offer. If you have already accepted the Offer, please ignore this letter.

On 9 February 2009, AGL announced that it had acquired a relevant interest in more than 90% of SGL shares. AGL will now exercise its right to acquire all the remaining SGL shares under the compulsory acquisition provisions of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (the Act) (including SGL shares issued in the 6 week period after the date of this letter on the exercise of options over SGL shares). Please find attached a Form 6021 – Notice of compulsory acquisition following takeover bid.

Under the compulsory acquisition provisions you are entitled to receive the Offer consideration on the same terms as the Offer for each SGL share you are the registered holder of (i.e. cash consideration of 42.5 cents per ordinary SGL share).

On completion of the compulsory acquisition procedure, AGL will pay the consideration for your shares to SGL. You will then be entitled to claim the consideration from SGL. Subject to the provisions of the Act, this is likely to occur in late March 2009 at the earliest. Please note that you do not need to sign or return the enclosed Notice. In due course SGL will send you a letter which will set out details for the method to claim payment of the cash consideration payable to you upon compulsory acquisition of your SGL shares.

Yours sincerely
