With reference to the Company's announcement on 29th April 2010, the Company have signed the Joint Venture Agreement for the re-structured Byte Power (Chongqing) Info Tech Ltd.

As Byte Power (Chongqing) Info Tech Ltd continues to improve and identify other income streams for its e-kiosks business, we have begun working with Austrade in China in providing Australian Companies looking for a presence in Chongqing an advertising and retail platform.

We have also initiated discussions with a large Australian Financial Institution as well as local banks in Chongqing to look at offering banking services through the e-kiosks.

Trading

Trading opportunities have continued to increase due to a greater focus in this area of business as we expect revenues in this area to continue to improve over time.

Funding

As demonstrated in the cashflow for the month ending 30th April 2010, the Company continues to enjoy funding support from major shareholders.

The Company is continuing its capital raising activities with potential investors both in Australia and overseas to strengthen its working capital as well as to accelerate its e-kiosks business.
