

Key Appointments To Strengthen Ongoing Nickel Exploration

- CEO David Hutton appointed to the Breakaway Board as Managing Director.
- Experienced nickel geologist Mark Fletcher appointed as Breakaway's Exploration Manager.

Breakaway Resources Limited (ASX: BRW) is pleased to announce key appointments to restructure and strengthen its exploration team as nickel sulphide exploration gathers momentum at its key Wildara and Miranda Projects, located in the Leinster District of Western Australia's North Eastern Goldfields.

Breakaway CEO and Exploration Manager, David Hutton, has been appointed to the Board as Managing Director to focus on the broader strategic development of the Company, while Mark Fletcher has joined the Company as Exploration Manager.

With over 17 years of nickel, gold and base metal exploration experience, including 12 years with WMC and BHP Billiton where he was part of the successful nickel exploration team, Mr Fletcher brings a high level of technical expertise to Breakaway.

Mr Hutton's salary will be $260,000 (inclusive of 9% SGC). Mr Hutton will also be issued with 1.5 million options vesting in 3 tranches of 500,000, 12, 24 and 36 months respectively after the issue date at an exercise price for respective tranches of 15 cents, 20 cents and 25 cents.

The issue of options to Mr Hutton will be subject to shareholder approval. Options have also been issued to Mr Fletcher, with both lots issued pursuant to the Company's Employee Option Scheme. An Appendix 3B with respect to Mr Fletcher's options will be lodged shortly.

These appointments strengthen the Breakaway team and ensure that the Company has sufficient management resources to oversee its nickel exploration effort, which continues to gather momentum with the RC drilling programme currently underway at Wildara and the systematic development of exciting new nickel targets at Miranda.
