Brierty named preferred contractor on significant contract

Civil and mining contractor Brierty Limited (ASX: BYL) has received advice on a pending contract valued at approximately $150m over three and a half years.

A letter has been received advising of Brierty's preferred contractor status. A contract is yet to be signed, with negotiations still to occur on the final terms and conditions.

Pending successful negotiation, the project is expected to commence late in the 2011 financial year.

Brierty will further advise the market once negotiations have concluded and if and when a final contract is signed.
