	Consolidated 30 June 2010 $	Company 2009 $	Change
Revenue from continuing operations	35,264	54,472	Down 35.26%
Loss from continuing operations	(1,118,662)	(181,219)	Up 617.30%
Loss attributable to members of TPL Corporation Limited	(1,118,662)	(181,219)	Up 617.30%

TPL Corporation Limited (the "Company") continued with the activity of web based publications consisting of the Total Hits masthead and website. During the period under review, the Total Hits website was revamped and new management engaged to run the business. The Total Hits website address is www.totalhits.com.au.

On 22 October 2009 the Company incorporated a subsidiary, Canning Basin Coal Pty Ltd, as the vehicle to apply for exploration licences in respect of coal prospective tenements in Western Australia. The first 3 licences of 63 applications were granted on 6 July 2010. Granted tenements cover approximately 724km<sup>2</sup> and additional tenement applications cover approximately 13,000km<sup>2</sup>.

The Company intends to improve its knowledge and understanding of coal mineralisation and potential within the Canning Basin through a comprehensive review of previous exploration and geological studies. Also as part of this process the Company will continue to acquire and interpret remote sensed data such as satellite imagery, airborne geophysics and aerial photography.

The Company is currently in negotiation on exploration access agreements with indigenous traditional owners and their representative body the Kimberley Land Council. Once finalised the Company plans move forward with reconnaissance and subsequent detailed regional, project and prospect scale geological mapping. Information gathered from the desktop studies, interpretation of remote sense data and geological mapping will be utilised to develop drill targets.

The results for 2010 are the Group consolidated results including its subsidiary, Canning Basin Coal Pty Ltd.

The loss for 2010 includes costs relating to the Total Hits website, costs relating to identification and assessment of business opportunities and those relating to the assessment and application of the coal exploration licence applications, including:

1. Costs of maintaining Total Hits including drafting new content and marketing the website at concert venues;
2. The consideration paid in cash and options for the identification of the exploration opportunity (non-recurring);
3. The consideration paid in shares for corporate advisory fees (non-recurring);
4. Additional directors' fees reflecting the changes to the board and the increase in activities;
5. Other project assessment costs; and
6. The costs and expenses in making the exploration licence applications.
