

Allegis Group Services & Talent² win Multi-Continent RPO Deal

Major, global, financial services firm signs with allegistalent² Global Partnership

Sydney, Tuesday 16 November 2010: Two global market leaders in Human Resources Outsourcing (HRO) have secured a multi-continent deal with a global financial services firm.

The deal will involve deployment of an integrated allegistalent² solution across numerous locations in North America and the Asia Pacific region.

The allegistalent² global alliance, which is an exclusive multi-year agreement between Allegis Group Services and Talent², is designed to provide their clients with integrated global HRO solutions.

Talent² is a market leading Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) business in Asia Pacific, Europe and the Middle East specialising in HRO. Allegis Group Services is a market leading HRO provider in North America, Europe and India.

Andrew Grant, Managing Director HRO at Talent² said:

“This long-term commitment by allegistalent² with a global financial services firm to provide HRO services will be transformational for our client and leverages our unique global governance framework that we believe represents world best practice in HRO.”

“We are seeing increasing demand for multi-region HRO services, with clients wanting a specialist provider to help them manage their talent globally. The substantial investment that Talent² has made with Allegis Group Services in our global project management office will enable clients to work with us globally, in a fully integrated way.”

“This type of demand is driving the growth of HRO, particularly in Asia, where multi-national companies from North America and Europe are forced to look to Asia to achieve their growth targets. This factor is also driving both labour shortages and labour cost increases in the region. The allegistalent² alliance enables Talent² to offer HRO services in Asia Pacific and the Middle East, and directly to Allegis Group Services and Talent² clients in both North America and Europe.”

Randolph Gulian, Executive Vice President/General Manager, Allegis RPO said:

“This very big win is another validation of the allegistalent² global alliance and the value of the platform that it provides to our multi-national clients. The evolution of global RPO offerings has become one of the most efficient and effective ways to assist corporations in how they think about talent in this very rapidly changing business environment.”

“We are delighted to be partnering with Talent² in this ground breaking deal. This is a great example of how we are reaping the rewards of both parties total commitment to redefining the RPO landscape. “
