Calgary, Alberta --- Viterrra Inc. ("Viterrra") (TSX: VT, ASX: VTA) is pleased to announce the opening of a new marketing office in Naples, Italy, and the appointment of Mauro Ambrosio as a representative of Viterrra's marketing activities in the region.

Mr. Ambrosio will manage relationships with key customers on behalf of Viterrra. He will work with Viterrra's International Grain Group as they extend the Company's value chain and create deeper connections between origination points in North America, Australia and New Zealand and leading food manufacturers and consumers in more than 50 countries worldwide.

"We are pleased to be represented by Mauro Ambrosio in our Naples office. His knowledge and insights into the unique needs of customers will further solidify our company as a link between origination and destination markets. Throughout his career in the market, he has established strong relationships with durum flour millers, pasta manufacturers and other end-users," said Christian Joerg, Vice-President and Managing Director, Europe.

Over the past two years, Viterrra's International Grain Group has established global marketing offices that allow the Company to capitalize on the growing demands for food ingredients.
