Re: Substantial Shareholdings

Dear Sir/Madam

We recently undertook a review of our substantial shareholding monitoring process regarding form 604 notices. Following this review, we wish to notify you of some minor amendments to form 604 notices that have previously been lodged with the ASX.

We previously included information in relation to the 4 months prior to the change in holding. We have expanded this time period to include the full length of time since we were last required to lodge a change of interest.

Accordingly, the amendments are only concerning Section 3 "Changes in relevant interests".

Please note that there is no change to the overall voting power of the companies notified on the prior notices.

If you have any questions, please contact James Stewart on 03 8888 3575 or james.stewart@vanguard.com.au.

Regards
