AUSTRALIAN E-TAILER TO SELL LITTLE TAKAS

EcoQuest (ASX: ECQ) is pleased to advise that the Australian nappy online store Total Nappy Supplies and nappy retail store Nappy Palace will sell the Little Takas biodegradable nappy and bamboo baby wipes range from June 2011.

Total Nappy Supplies service customers in the Gold Coast, Tweed, Kingscliff, Murwillumbah, Greater Brisbane, Sunshine Coast and Greater Toowoomba areas and is supported by the Nappy Palace retail store located in the suburb of Miami in the Gold Coast.

Denise Touliaos, owner and director of Total Nappy Supplies and the Nappy Palace welcomed the brand: "We are delighted to start selling the Little Takas nappies in our stores as increasingly environmentally-conscious new mums are looking for more alternatives to conventional nappies to reduce their environmental impact and in a way that still provides the best in comfort and performance for their babies."

Matthew Hiscox, Managing Director of EcoQuest said: "We are delighted to continue to extend our distribution outlets across Australia".

About EcoQuest

EcoQuest Limited (ASX: ECQ) is a globally focused clean technology business based in Perth, Western Australia, and is listed on the Australian Stock Exchange (ASX: ECQ) and traded on the German Third Market.

EcoQuest is focused on developing and applying the latest technologies to create products with improved environmental benefits, but still maintaining excellent consumer performance.

The main product in the EcoQuest range are the Little Takas 90% biodegradable nappies designed for composting, which combines all the performance benefits of current market leading nappies with additional benefits for babies and our environment.

EcoQuest nappies have been tested in accordance with ISO 14855-1:2005. At the conclusion of six months independent scientific testing, the nappies achieved 90% of the maximum theoretical value for biodegradation.

The Little Takas nappy range and Bamboo baby wipes are sold in Australia.
