Blue Ridge Dome

Cash received during the quarter ended 30 June 2011 from Blue Ridge Dome oil sales totalled USD 3,539,000.

In addition, cash of USD 1,373,000 has been received in July 2011 from June 2011 Blue Ridge Dome oil sales.

Reported production for the period February 2011 to June 2011 is summarised in the table below.

Month	Gross Production	Average BOPD
February 2011	10,394	371
March 2011	13,337	430
April 2011	15,476	516
May 2011	19,845	640
June 2011	20,650	688

Other leases

There were no production operations on any other leases owned by Maverick.

SUMMARY OF EXPLORATION ACTIVITIES

Blue Ridge Dome

The Directors of Maverick consider that the drilling, survey and other work completed on Maverick's current Blue Ridge Dome leases is of a developmental nature, as opposed to exploratory. On this basis there are no exploration activities on Blue Ridge Dome to report for the quarter ended 30 June 2011.

Boling Dome

During the quarter Maverick acquired additional leases on Boling Dome totalling 112 net acres.

During the quarter Maverick continued title work and historical data collection work on its Boling Dome leases. This is the first step in a thorough evaluation of the Boling Dome prospect which will include the development of a pilot drilling program and initial reserve estimates.

Edwards Reef

During the quarter Maverick continued its analysis of seismic data obtained on this prospect and also continued the process of identifying additional leases to be targeted.

Foothold

During the quarter Maverick continued work identifying additional leases to be targeted on this prospect.

Nash Dome

During the quarter Maverick acquired 672 gross and net acres on and flanking the Nash Dome Field, approximately 25 miles southwest of Houston, Texas.

Under the terms of the purchase, Maverick has committed to begin drilling on the leases before November, 2011. There is one existing potential producing well and no existing production involved with this acquisition. Maverick has acquired 100% of the working interest in the leases.

Nash Dome was discovered in 1924, and is credited with being the first geophysical discovery in the United States in most technical industry publications. Nash Dome is a piercement type salt dome in the Frio formation trend, like Blue Ridge Dome and Boling Dome. Salt domes in Texas, particularly those in the Frio formation trend, have been of particular geological significance because of their mineral production. The Nash Dome field, encompassing approximately 1,500 acres has produced approximately five and one half million barrels to date, and Maverick believes there is considerable in-field drilling potential remaining in the field. Depths of the Miocene and Frio sands on Nash Dome are consistent with the other fields in which Maverick owns leases, and within the depth capabilities of Maverick's own drilling rigs.

The acquisition of the Nash Dome acreage is also consistent with Maverick's strategy of acquiring and developing low risk leases in proven oil fields similar to Blue Ridge Dome and Boling Dome.

There have been no initial reserve estimates attributed to the Nash acquisition. This will be evaluated later in 2011 following a pilot drilling program in the field.

SUMMARY OF LEASE ACQUISITION ACTIVITIES

Maverick increased its lease holdings during the quarter ended 30 June 2011 as follows:

Lease area	Movement in lease holding for the quarter (net acres)	Lease holding at 30 June 2011 (net acres)
Blue Ridge Dome	4	1,743
Boling Dome	112	2,477
Edwards Reef	-	270
Foothold	-	455
Nash Dome	672	672

- 7 Item 4 details Maverick’s estimated gross cash outflows for the coming quarter of USD 5,619,000. It must be noted that Maverick will generate income from oil sales and from the provision of contract drilling services that will partially fund these estimated gross cash outflows. Further to this, Maverick will be utilising the special purpose credit facility obtained from Texoz Holdings Pty Ltd. With this information in mind, the Directors believe that Maverick continues to be in compliance with Listing Rule 12.2.
