- (a) The directors may accept from a member the whole or a part of the amount unpaid on a share although no part of that amount has been called.
- (b) The directors may by agreement with any such member making such payment:
 - (1) where the amount so tendered is the whole of the amount remaining unpaid on a share, and, at the request of the member, credit that share as a fully paid share ranking equally with all other fully paid shares then on issue; or
 - (2) regardless of the amount so paid, authorise payment by the company of interest upon the whole or any part of an amount accepted under rule 3.3(a), until the amount becomes payable, at a rate agreed between the directors and the member paying the amount.
- (c) Save in the circumstances set out in rule 3.3(b)(1), the directors may repay to a member all or any of the amount accepted under rule 3.3(a) at such time or times as the directors shall think fit unless, at the time the member made such payment, the member and the company agreed to repay such moneys at a specific time or times or within a specified period after the member gives notice to the company requiring repayment of such moneys.
- (d) Where the company receives a payment under rule 3.3(a), which is not dealt with in accordance with rule 3.3(b)(1), the member shall rank as an unsecured creditor in respect of that amount and such interest, if any, which the company has agreed to pay on such amount pursuant to rule 3.3(b)(2).

3.4 Forfeiture of partly paid shares

- (a) Subject to this constitution, and to the terms of issue of any partly paid share, if payment of a call in respect of a share is not made within 14 days after the call became payable, then the share is immediately forfeited.
- (b) A person whose shares have been forfeited ceases to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares.
- (c) Except as otherwise provided by this constitution, the Corporations Act and, while the company is a listed company, the Listing Rules, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes all interest in, and all claims and demands against the company in respect of, the forfeited share and all other rights incidental to the share.
- (d) Where a share has become forfeited the company shall serve a notice on the erstwhile holder of such forfeited share:

- (1) giving notice of such forfeiture;
- (2) requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with:
 - (A) a portion, calculated on a pro rata basis, of all expenses incurred by the company in respect of the forfeiture; and
 - (B) a portion, calculated on a pro rata basis, of all costs and expenses of any proceeding that has been taken in respect of the forfeiture.
 - (C) any interest that has accrued and all costs, and expenses or damages that may have been incurred by the company by reason of the non-payment or late payment of the call or instalment.
- (3) stating that, in the event of non-payment of the whole of the amount payable under rule 3.4(d)(2) by the close of business on the day before the day on which the shares in respect of which the call was made will sold by public auction, specifying such date.
- (4) A forfeiture under this rule will include all dividends, interest and other money payable by the company in respect of the forfeited share and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
- (e) Where a share has been forfeited an entry of the forfeiture, with the date, must be made in the register of members.
- (f) The directors may:
 - (1) exempt a share from all or any part of this rule 3.4;
 - (2) waive or compromise all or any part of any payment due to the company under this rule 3.4; and
- (g) Failure to give the notice or to make the entry required under rule 3.4(e) does not invalidate the forfeiture.

3.5 Title to forfeited shares

Once a forfeited share has become the property of the company following an auction, the directors may sell, reissue or otherwise dispose of the share in such manner and on such terms as they think fit and, in the case of reissue or other disposal, with or without any money paid on the share by any former holder being credited as paid up.

3.6 Procedure for sale of forfeited shares

- (a) A forfeited share must be offered for sale by public auction within six weeks after the call became payable. Save as otherwise set out herein and as may be prescribed by the Corporations Act or the Listing Rules, the directors may determine the terms and conditions on which any auction of forfeited shares may be held and may fix the number of forfeited shares which may be offered at any one time for sale as a parcel of forfeited shares.
- (b) At least 14 days, but not more than 21 days, before the date of the proposed sale of the forfeited shares, the sale of the forfeited shares must be advertised in a daily newspaper circulating generally throughout Australia. The specific number of shares to be offered need not be specified in the advertisement and it is sufficient to give notice of the sale by advertising to the effect that all shares on which a call remains unpaid will be sold.

- (c) An intended sale of forfeited shares that has been advertised in accordance with this constitution may be postponed. The date to which the sale is postponed must not be more than 21 days after the advertised date of sale.
- (d) If the intended sale of forfeited shares is postponed, the date to which the sale is postponed must be advertised in a daily newspaper circulating generally in Australia.
- (e) An intended sale of forfeited shares may be postponed more than once, but the sale cannot be postponed to a date more than 90 days from the first date fixed for the intended sale.
- (f) subject only to rule 3.6(g), where a forfeited share is sold at auction the forfeited share may be sold for the amount of the highest bid at auction and, upon sale, shall be credited as paid up to the sum of:
 - (1) the amount paid on the share at the time of forfeiture;
 - (2) the amount of the call; and
 - (3) the amount of any other call becoming payable on or before the day of the sale.
- (g) The directors may fix a reserve price for a forfeited share that is to be sold. The reserve price must not exceed:
 - (1) the amount of the call due and unpaid on the share at the time of forfeiture; and
 - (2) the amount of any other calls that become payable on or before the date of the auction.
- (h) Where the directors fix a reserve price under rule 3.6(g) they may, at their discretion and at any time before the close of the auction at which the forfeited share is to be sold, either vary the reserve price (provided that the varied reserve price remains compliant with the requirements of rule 3.6(g)) or remove any reserve price altogether.
- (i) A forfeited share may not be withdrawn from sale during any auction thereof for any reason. Where a forfeited share fails to be sold at auction for any reason, including that the bids made for the forfeited share failed to reach the reserve fixed by the directors under rule 3.6(g), that share is withdrawn from sale with effect from the close of the auction.
- (j) A forfeited share shall be held by the directors in trust for the company until otherwise disposed of. On a share becoming a forfeited share, the member in whose name the share is registered forfeits the right to deal with the share. Where any forfeited share has failed to sell at auction for any reason, that forfeited share shall be transferred from the name of the holder thereof into the joint names of the directors to be held by them on trust for the company in an account designated “forfeited shares account”. Such shareholding shall be under the sole control of the directors from time to time and shall be held in trust for the company until re-issued by the company. For this purpose each holder of any partly paid share shall, by the terms of issue thereof, be deemed to have appointed each director of the company from time to time as that holder’s attorney to execute any transfer, direction, consent or other paper writing required to give effect to this rule.

- (k) A forfeited share may not be voted at any general meeting while so held by the directors in trust.
- (l) The proceeds of the sale of a forfeited share sold at auction must be applied in the following order:
 - (1) to pay the expenses of the sale at which the forfeited share was sold;
 - (2) to pay any expenses necessarily incurred in respect of the forfeiture; and
 - (3) to pay the calls on the forfeited share that are due and unpaid.

The balance (if any) of the proceeds of the sale of the forfeited shares must be paid to the member whose shares have been sold on production by that member of the certificate (if any) that relates to those forfeited shares.

- (m) If a sale of a forfeited share is not held in time because of error or inadvertence, a late sale is not invalid if it is held as soon as practicable after the discovery of the error or inadvertence.
- (n) Where a forfeited share has failed to sell at auction and has been transferred into the name of the directors to be held on trust for the company as permitted by these rules, the proceeds of re-issue thereof shall belong absolutely to the company to be applied by it for its own purposes in like manner as any other issue of new shares and the proceeds of such re-issue shall be credited as capital. For clarity, the erstwhile holder of any such forfeited share so re-issued by the directors shall have no right title or interest in or to any of the proceeds of re-issue on any account whatsoever.

3.7 Power of directors to exempt shares from forfeiture

- (a) Subject to the mandatory operation of any applicable provisions of the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules, the directors may:
 - (1) exempt a share from all or any part of rule 3.4;
 - (2) waive or compromise all or any part of any payment due to the company under rule 3.4; and
 - (3) before a forfeited share has been sold, reissued or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture upon such conditions as they think fit.

3.8 Redemption of forfeited shares

- (a) if a member's share has been forfeited, the member may pay the company, at any time up to or on the last Business Day before the proposed sale:
 - (1) all calls due on the shares; and
 - (2) if the company so requires:
 - (A) a portion, calculated on a pro rata basis, of all expenses incurred by the company in respect of the forfeiture; and
 - (B) a portion, calculated on a pro rata basis, of all costs and expenses of any proceeding that has been taken in respect of the forfeiture.
- (b) On payment, the member is entitled to the share as if the forfeiture had not occurred.
- (c) If such payment is not made as provided in rule 3.8(a), then the member shall no longer have a right to redeem the forfeited share. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the directors may, in their absolute and unfettered discretion, permit the holder of the forfeited share to redeem the share on such terms as set out in rule 3.8(a).

3.9 Re-issue of forfeited shares

- (a) Where a forfeited share remains unsold following an auction conducted in accordance with these rules it shall be held in trust by the directors for the company and it may be disposed of by the company ("re-issued") in like manner as the company could make a placement or issue of shares in accordance with any of the provisions of the Corporations Act and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, may be re-issued in like manner as any new share without disclosure under section 708 of the Corporations Act provided that, no forfeited share shall be re-issued to any director or related party of the company, or any Associate of any such person, without the approval of the members of the company in general meeting, with such meeting being convened in accordance with the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules and all applicable ASIC Regulatory Guides.
- (b) the manner in which any forfeited shares held in trust for the company shall be as determined by the company and, unless otherwise resolved by the directors, such shares shall be disposed of by offering them for sale on any stock market on which the forfeited shares are listed for quotation by offering the shares for sale on that market through duly qualified and licensed stockbroker.

3.10 Cancellation of forfeited shares

Subject to the Corporations Act, by resolution passed at a general meeting, the company may cancel any forfeited share.

3.11 Indemnity for payments by the company

If the company becomes liable under any law to make any payment:

- (a) in respect of shares held solely or jointly by a member;
- (b) in respect of a transfer or transmission of shares by a member;
- (c) in respect of dividends, bonuses or other money due or payable or which may become due and payable to a member; or
- (d) otherwise for or on account of or in respect of a member,

whether as a consequence of:

- (e) the death of that member;
- (f) the non-payment of any income tax, capital gains tax, wealth tax or other tax by that member or the legal personal representative of that member;
- (g) the non-payment of any estate, probate, succession, death, stamp or other duty by that member or the legal personal representative of that member; or
- (h) any other act or thing, then, in addition to any right or remedy that law may confer on the company:

- (i) the member or, if the member is dead, the member's legal personal representative must:
 - (1) fully indemnify the company against that liability;
 - (2) reimburse the company for any payment made under or as a consequence of that law immediately on demand by the company; and
 - (3) pay interest on so much of the amount payable to the company under rule 3.11(i)(2) as is unpaid from time to time, from the date the company makes a payment under that law until the date the company is reimbursed in full for that payment under rule 3.11(i)(2), at a rate determined under rule 3.15;
- (j) the directors may:
 - (1) exempt a share from all or any part of this rule 3.11 and
 - (2) waive or compromise all or any part of any payment due to the company under this rule 3.11.

3.12 Lien on shares

- (a) The company has a first and paramount lien on:
 - (1) each partly paid share for all calls and instalments which are due but unpaid in respect of that share;
 - (2) each share acquired under an employee incentive scheme, where an amount is owed to the company for its acquisition; and
 - (3) each share for all amounts that the company is required by law to pay, and has paid, in respect of that share.

In each case the lien extends to reasonable interest and expenses incurred because the amount is not paid.

- (b) The company's lien on a share extends to all dividends payable in respect of the share and to the proceeds of sale of the share.
- (c) The directors may sell any share on which the company has a lien where an amount in respect of which a lien exists under this rule 3.12 is presently payable.
- (d) In the case of any sale of a share in respect of which a lien exists under rule 3.12(a)(1) the directors shall comply with the requirements of rules 3.4 to 3.10.
- (e) In the case of any sale of a share in respect of which a lien exists under rule 3.12(a)(2) or (3) then, provided that the company has, not less than 14 days before the date of the proposed sale or disposition, given the registered holder of the share a notice in writing setting out, and demanding payment of, such amount in respect of which the lien exists and the registered holder has failed to make payment of such amount, the directors may sell such shares at such price and on such terms as any forfeited share may be sold or disposed of by the directors under rule 3.9 without any requirement to auction such share or advertise such proposed sale or disposition and without the need to obtain any approval of members to such sale or disposition other than in the same circumstances as required for the sale or disposition of a forfeited share.
- (f) The directors may do all things necessary or desirable under the ASTC Settlement Rules to protect any lien, charge or other right to which the company may be entitled under any law or under this constitution.
- (g) Without limitation to the foregoing or to any other remedy available to the company, the company may impose a holding lock (as defined in the Listing Rules) on any shares in respect of which the company has a lien.
- (h) Registration by the company of a transfer of shares on which the company has a lien without giving to the transferee notice of its claim releases the company's lien in so far as it relates to sums owing by the transferor or any predecessor in title.
- (i) The directors may:
 - (1) exempt a share from all or any part of this rule 3.12; and
 - (2) waive or compromise all or any part of any payment due to the company under this rule 3.12.

3.13 Surrender of shares

- (a) The directors may accept a surrender of a share by way of compromise of any claim, including any issue as to whether that share has been validly issued or in any other case where the surrender is within the powers of the company.
- (b) Any share so surrendered may be sold by the directors at such price and on such terms as any forfeited share may be sold or disposed of by the directors under rule 3.9 without any requirement to auction such share or advertise such proposed sale or disposition and without the need to obtain any approval of members to such sale or disposition other than in the same circumstances as required for the sale or disposition of a forfeited share.

3.14 General provisions applicable to a disposal of shares under this constitution

- (a) A reference in this rule 3.14 to a disposal of shares under this constitution is a reference to:
 - (1) any sale of a forfeited share under rule 3.4, any re-issue (by sale or other disposal) of a forfeited share under rule 3.9 or any sale or disposal of a surrendered share under rule 3.13; and
 - (2) any sale of a share on which the company has a lien under rule 3.12(c).
- (b) Where any shares are disposed of under this constitution, the directors may:
 - (1) receive the purchase money or consideration given for the shares on the disposal;
 - (2) effect a transfer of the shares and execute, or appoint a person to execute, on behalf of the former holder an instrument of transfer of the shares or any other instrument for the purpose of giving effect to the disposal; and
 - (3) register as the holder of the shares the person to whom the shares have been disposed of.
- (c) A person to whom shares are disposed of under this constitution is not bound to see to the regularity or validity of, or to the application of the purchase money or consideration on, the disposal and the title of that person to the shares is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the forfeiture or surrender of the shares or the exercise of the company's lien on the shares (as the case may be).
- (d) The remedy of any person aggrieved by a disposal of shares under this constitution is limited to damages only and is against the company exclusively.
- (e) Save in the case of forfeited shares to which rules 3.4 to 3.10 apply and subject to the terms on which any share may have been surrendered under rule 3.13 (which shall have primacy over the provisions of this rule), the proceeds of a disposal of shares under this constitution must be applied in the payment of:
 - (1) first, the expenses of the disposal;
 - (2) second, all money presently payable by the former holder whose shares have been disposed of,

and the surplus (if any) must be paid (subject to any lien that exists under rule 3.12 in respect of money not presently payable) to the former holder as soon as practicable after the disposal.

- (f) A statement in writing signed by a director or secretary of the company to the effect that a share in the company has been:
 - (1) duly forfeited under rule 3.4;
 - (2) duly sold, reissued or otherwise disposed of under rule 3.4, rule 3.9 or rule 3.13; or
 - (3) duly sold under rule 3.12;

on a date stated in the statement is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in the statement as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share and of the right of the company to forfeit, sell, reissue or otherwise dispose of the share.

3.15 Interest payable by member

- (a) For the purposes of any rule in this constitution under which the company is entitled to charge interest, subject to the mandatory application of any provisions of the Corporations Act, the rate of interest payable to the company is:
 - (1) if the directors have fixed a rate, the rate so fixed; or
 - (2) in any other case, the rate prescribed in respect of unpaid judgements in the Supreme Court of Victoria, Australia.
- (b) the directors may fix differing rates of interest at each time the directors are required or empowered to fix a rate. Any rate fixed may be a variable rate which fluctuates with variable rates charged by the company's bankers from time to time.
- (c) Any interest payable under any rule in this constitution accrues daily and may be capitalised monthly or at such other intervals as the directors think fit.

4 Dividends and distributions

4.1 Dividends

- (a) The directors may pay any interim and final dividends as, in their judgment, the financial position of the company justifies.
- (b) The directors may pay any dividend required to be paid under the terms of issue of a share.
- (c) The payment of a dividend does not require any confirmation by a general meeting. The following provisions apply to dividends;
 - (1) all dividends in respect of shares must be paid to the members in proportion to the number of shares held by a member but where shares are partly paid all dividends must be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid (not credited) on the shares;
 - (2) all dividends must be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts so paid (not credited) during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid;

- (3) for the purposes of rules 4.1(1) and (2), an amount paid or credited as paid on a share in advance of a call is to be ignored; and
 - (4) interest is not payable by the company in respect of any dividend.
- (d) The directors may fix a record date in respect of a dividend, with or without suspending the registration of transfers from that date under rule 5.3.
- (e) A dividend in respect of a share must be paid to the person who is registered, or entitled under rule 5.1(e) to be registered, as the holder of the share:
- (1) where the directors have fixed a record date in respect of the dividend, on that date; or
 - (2) where the directors have not fixed a record date in respect of that dividend, on the date fixed for payment of the dividend,
- and a transfer of a share that is not registered, or left with the company for registration in accordance with rules 5.1(d) and (e), on or before that date is not effective, as against the company, to pass any right to the dividend.
- (f) Inasmuch as under section 254T of the Corporations Act dividends are not required to be paid out of profits, the directors, when determining that a dividend is payable, may:
- (1) direct payment of the dividend wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets, including paid-up shares of the company or of another body corporate or any other financial product, either generally or to specific members; and
 - (2) direct that the dividend be paid to particular members wholly or partly out of any particular fund, reserve or source and to the remaining members wholly or partly out of any other particular fund or reserve or source.
- (g) The company may deduct from any dividend payable to a member all sums of money presently payable by the member to the company for calls due and payable that have not been paid and apply the amount deducted in or towards satisfaction of the money owing.
- (h) Where a person is entitled to a share as a result of a transmission event, the directors may, but are not obliged to, retain any dividends payable in respect of that share until that person becomes registered as the holder of the share or transfers it.
- (i) Without prejudice to any other method of payment the directors may adopt, any dividend, interest or other money payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque and sent by post:
- (1) to the address of the holder as shown in the register of members, or in the case of joint holders, to the address shown in the register of members as the address of the joint holder first named in that register; or
 - (2) to such other address as the holder or joint holders in writing directs or direct.

- (j) A cheque sent under rule 4.1(i) may be made payable to bearer or to the order of the member to whom it is sent or such other person as the member may direct and is sent at the member's risk.
- (k) Where any dividend is unclaimed, the company shall be entitled to deal with same in accordance with the provisions of the Unclaimed Monies Act 1962 of the State of Victoria. No interest shall be payable on any unclaimed dividends

4.2 Capitalisation of profits

- (a) The directors may capitalise and distribute among such of the members as would be entitled to receive dividends and in the same proportions, any amount:
 - (1) forming part of the undivided profits of the company;
 - (2) representing profits arising from an ascertained accretion to capital or from a revaluation of the assets of the company;
 - (3) arising from the realisation of any assets of the company; or
 - (4) otherwise available for distribution as a dividend.
- (b) The directors may resolve that all or any part of the capitalised amount is to be applied:
 - (1) in paying up in full shares in the company to be issued to members;
 - (2) in paying up any amounts unpaid on shares in the company held by the members; or
 - (3) partly as specified in rule 4.2(b)(1) and partly as specified in rule 4.2(b)(2),and such an application shall be accepted by the members entitled to share in the distribution in full satisfaction of their interests in the capitalised amount.
- (c) Rules 4.1(d),(e) and (f)(d), (e) and (f) apply, so far as they can and with such changes as are necessary, to a capitalisation of an amount under this rule 4.2 as if references in those rules to a dividend and to the date a dividend is fixed for payment were references to a capitalisation of an amount and to the date the directors resolve to capitalise the amount under this rule 4.2 respectively.

4.3 Ancillary powers

- (a) For the purpose of giving effect to any resolution for the satisfaction of a dividend in the manner set out in rule 4.1(f)(1), for any reduction of capital pursuant to which any assets (including shares or other financial products) are distributed in specie or by the capitalisation of any amount under rule 4.2, the directors may:
 - (1) settle as they think expedient any difficulty that may arise in making the distribution or capitalisation;
 - (2) fix the value for distribution of any specific assets;

- (3) pay cash or issue shares to any members in order to adjust the rights of all parties;
- (4) vest any such specific assets, cash, shares in any trustee upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend or capitalised amount as may seem expedient to the directors; and
- (5) authorise any person to make, on behalf of all the members entitled to any further shares as a result of the distribution or capitalisation, an agreement with the company or another body corporate providing, as appropriate:
 - (A) for the issue to them of further shares credited as fully paid up; or
 - (B) for the payment by the company on their behalf of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares by the application of their respective proportions of the sum resolved to be capitalised, and any agreement made under an authority referred to in this rule 4.3(a)(5) is effective and binding on all members concerned.

(b) Subject to the proviso hereto, if any of:

- (1) the company;
- (2) any subsidiary of the company; or
- (3) any controlled entity of the company:

issues, transfers or otherwise distributes or proposes to issue, transfer or otherwise distribute any shares (whether in the company or in any such subsidiary or controlled entity or other body corporate) or any other financial product (whether as a dividend or by return of capital or otherwise and whether or not for value) to members of the company (either generally or to specific members), each of those members shall be deemed for all purposes to have agreed to accept any such shares or other financial products and to have agreed to become a member of the body corporate or other entity, the shares or financial products of which have been so issued, transferred or distributed and in addition, each member appoints the company and each of its directors severally as his or her agent and attorney to do anything needed to give effect to any such issue, transfer or distribution, including agreeing to become a member of that other body corporate and the execution of all transfers and other documents and paper writings on behalf of such member. The proviso referred to above is that no member shall be deemed to have accepted any shares or other financial products proposed to be so issued, transferred or distributed to such member where such shares or other financial products comprise partly paid shares or financial products where by the terms of issue thereof, the holder thereof shall be contractually liable to make any further payment on account of the issue price thereof or otherwise.

(c) It shall be a term of such power of attorney referred to in rule 4.3(b) that, where any member entitled to any such share or other financial product does not have an address on the register of members within Australia or New Zealand (herein called a "foreign shareholder") such attorney may, as agent and attorney for any or all such foreign shareholders, direct the company to register any such financial product to which that foreign shareholder or those foreign shareholders are entitled into the name of a nominee and direct that nominee to sell such financial products on such terms as the attorney may direct and to pay the proceeds of sale thereof to the foreign shareholder or shareholders entitled according to their respective entitlements. For the purpose of clarity, where the nominee holds any such financial products on behalf of more than one foreign shareholder, on the sale of all of the financial products so held, the company may account to each such foreign shareholder for that proportion of the gross proceeds of sale of such financial products as bears the same proportion to the aggregate gross proceeds of sale thereof as the foreign shareholders entitlement to such financial products sold bears to the total number of such financial products so sold with the effect that the foreign shareholder shall receive a proportion of the gross proceeds of sale of all such financial products.

- (d) Where for any reason whatsoever the consent or agreement of any member is required to give effect to any such issue, transfer or distribution of shares or other financial products referred to in rule 4.3(b) the directors may appoint any person to make, on behalf of all or any of the members entitled to any such shares or other financial products, an agreement with the company (or any other body corporate) on behalf of any or all such members consenting to such issue, transfer or distribution of shares or other financial products and to the issue or transfer or distribution to them of such shares or other financial products and to the registration thereof into the names of such members according to their respective entitlements. Where any such member entitled to any such share or other financial product is a foreign shareholder then the terms of such agreement shall incorporate the provisions of rule 4.3(c) in like manner as they are included in the power of attorney therein referred to. For the sake of clarity it is recorded that the proviso to rule 4.3(b) shall apply likewise to restrict the nature of any agreement which any such appointee may enter into on behalf of the members or any of them.
- (e) without limiting the scope or operation of any other provision of this rule, if:
- (1) the company;
 - (2) any subsidiary of the company; or
 - (3) any controlled entity of the company;

shall resolve by resolution of the directors to undertake any corporate action of any kind where the members of the company are required to give consent to any such corporate action being carried out or implemented by the company or by such subsidiary or controlled entity of the company then, unless prohibited under the Corporations Act or under the Listing Rules of ASX or otherwise by law, the directors may appoint any person to make, on behalf of all or any of the members, an agreement on behalf of any or all such members with any or all of;

- (4) the company;
- (5) any such subsidiary of the company;
- (6) any such controlled entity of the company; or,
- (7) any other person, including any other body corporate;

under which that member or those members consent to such corporate action provided that the effect of such corporate action shall not be to impose any liability on any such member to which the member would not otherwise be liable.

- (f) in this rule 4.3 a member will be deemed “entitled” to any share or financial product on the company, subsidiary or controlled entity resolving to issue, transfer or distribute any such share or other financial product to that member or generally to the class of members to which that member shall belong.
- (g) Nothing in this rule 4.3 shall limit or restrict any power that the company may exercise in general meeting or otherwise in accordance with the Corporations Act or generally at law.

4.4 Reserves

- (a) Subject to this constitution, the directors may set aside out of the profits of the company such reserves or provisions for such purposes as they think fit.
- (b) The directors may appropriate to the profits of the company any amount previously set aside as a reserve or provision.
- (c) The setting aside of any amount as a reserve or provision does not require the directors to keep the amount separate from the other assets of the company or prevent the amount being used in the business of the company or being invested in such investments as the directors think fit.

4.5 Carry forward of profits

The directors may carry forward so much of the profits remaining as they consider ought not to be distributed as dividends or capitalised without transferring those profits to a reserve or provision.

4.6 Dividend reinvestment plans

The directors may:

- (a) implement a dividend reinvestment plan on such terms as they think fit under which the whole or any part of any dividend due to members who participate in the plan on their shares may be applied in subscribing for shares of the company or of a related body corporate; and
- (b) amend, suspend or terminate any dividend reinvestment plan implemented by them.

- (f) If a poll is duly demanded at a general meeting, it will be taken in such manner and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the chairperson of the meeting directs, and the result of the poll will be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded, such result to be announced in the form and manner determined by the chairperson (either before or after the general meeting).
- (g) A poll cannot be demanded at a general meeting on the election of a chairperson of the meeting or the adjournment of a meeting.

 - (2) if the proxy has two or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on the resolution — the proxy must not vote on a show of hands in his capacity as a proxy;
 - (3) if the proxy is the chairperson — the proxy must vote on a poll, and must vote in relation to each proxy the way the proxy is directed to vote on that resolution; and

 - (2) that vote will be taken as having been cast for all the members the person represents; and
 - (3) the person must not exercise that vote in a way which would contravene any directions given to the person in accordance with rule 7.10(g) in any instrument appointing the person as a proxy or attorney.
- (f) A joint holder may vote at any meeting in person or by proxy, attorney or representative as if that person was the sole holder. If more than one joint holder tenders a vote, the vote of the holder named first in the register must be accepted to the exclusion of the other or others.
- (g) The parent or guardian of an infant member or any guardian of any person appointed under the Guardianship and Administration Act 1986 of the State of Victoria or any corresponding legislation in any other State or Territory or the Commonwealth of Australia may vote at any

- (h) A person entitled to a share as a result of a transmission event may vote at any general meeting in respect of that share in the same manner as if that person were the registered holder of the share if, not less than 48 hours before the meeting (or such shorter time as the directors determine), the directors have:
 - (1) admitted that person's right to vote at that meeting in respect of the share; or
 - (2) been satisfied of that person's right to be registered as the holder of, or to transfer, the share under rule 5.4(c),and any vote so tendered by such a person must be accepted to the exclusion of the vote of the registered holder of the share.

 - (2) permit the person to exercise his or her powers on the condition that, if required by the company, he or she can produce evidence of the appointment within the time set by the chairperson.
- (f) Where a member appoints two proxies, attorneys or representatives, the following rules apply:
 - (1) each proxy, attorney or representative, as the case may be, may exercise half of the member's voting rights if the appointment does not specify a proportion or number of the member's voting rights the proxy, attorney or representative may exercise;

- (2) on a show of hands, neither proxy, attorney or representative may vote; and
 - (3) on a poll, each proxy, attorney or representative may only exercise the voting rights the proxy, attorney or representative represents.
- (g) An instrument appointing a proxy, attorney or representative may direct the manner in which the proxy, attorney or representative is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where an instrument so provides, the proxy, attorney or representative is not entitled to vote on the proposed resolution except as directed in the instrument.
- (h) An instrument appointing a proxy or attorney need not be in any particular form provided it is in writing, legally valid and signed by the appointor or the appointor's attorney, or in the case of an appointment of corporate representative, it is executed by that corporate member in accordance with rule 7.10(k).

- (l) Where a corporate member appoints a corporate representative as permitted under section 250D(1) of the Corporations Act the corporate representative may not vote at the meeting unless the company is provided with a copy of such appointment or a certificate of appointment of the representative duly executed in accordance with rule 7.10(n) or the corporate member or such representative provides such other evidence of such appointment satisfactory to the chairperson. Such appointment, certificate or other evidence may be provided to the company either at, or prior to the meeting. 8 Directors

8.1 Appointment and removal of directors

- (a) The minimum number of directors is 3. The maximum number of directors may be fixed by the directors ("board limit"), but must not be more than 12 unless the company in general meeting determines otherwise.
- (b) The directors must not determine a board limit:
 - (1) which is less than the number of directors in office at the time the determination takes effect;
 - (2) without the prior approval of the members in general meeting in accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Act.
- (c) The directors in office on the date that this constitution was adopted by the company continue in office but on the terms and conditions set out in this constitution.
- (d) Subject to rules 8.1(a) and (m), the company may by resolution elect any natural person to be a director, either as an addition to the existing directors or as otherwise provided in this constitution.
- (e) Subject to rules 8.1(a) and (f), the directors may appoint any natural person to be a director, either as an addition to the existing directors or to fill a casual vacancy (including any casual vacancy arising where a director is removed from office under rule 8.1(k)(1) and no person is appointed in place of that director under rule 8.1(k)(2)).
- (f) At each AGM of the company:
 - (1) each director, other than a managing director, appointed under rule 8.1(e) since the last AGM; and
 - (2) excluding any director referred to in rule 8.1(f)(1) and any managing director (or the first appointed managing director if there is more than one):
 - (A) one-third of the remaining directors; and
 - (B) any other director who, if he or she does not retire, will at the conclusion of the meeting have been in office for three or more years and for three or more AGMs since he or she was last elected to office, must retire from office as directors; and

- (3) if no director is required to retire from office under rule 8.1(f)(2), at least one director, excluding a managing director (or the first appointed managing director if there is more than one) who is required to retire at that meeting under rule 8.1(f)(1), must retire from office as director.
- (g) (g)For the purpose of rule 8.1(f)(2)(A) the number of directors who are to retire shall, where the calculation under that rule would result in number less than one (namely a fraction less than one), that number or fraction shall be rounded down or up to the closest whole number with the effect that, for example, if there were only one remaining director in relation to whom the rule could operate, then, the fraction of one-third resulting from the operation of 8.1(f)(2)(A) would be rounded down to nil so that no director was required to stand for re-election under that rule but that if there were two remaining directors in relation to whom the rule could operate, then, the fraction of two-thirds resulting from the operation of 8.1(f)(2)(A) would be rounded up to one so that one director was required to stand for re-election under that rule. The director or directors who must retire at an AGM in accordance with rules 8.1(f)(2)(A) or 8.1(f)(3) (as the case may be) are those who have been longest in office since their last election but, as between persons who were last elected as directors on the same day, those to retire must be determined by agreement among themselves or, in the absence of agreement, by lot. For clarity, a director may not be required to stand for re-election under rule 8.1(f)(2) but may nevertheless be required to resign from office under rule 8.1(f)(3) without having been in office for three years or there having been three or more AGMs held since he or she was last elected to office ..
- (h) Subject to rule 8.1(m), the company may by resolution fill the office vacated by a director under rule 8.1(f) by electing a person to that office.
- (i) A director retiring from office under rule 8.1(f) is eligible for re-election and, if the office vacated by that director is not filled by a resolution of the company under rule 8.1(h), that director (if offering himself or herself for re-election) is to be taken as having been re-elected to that office unless:
 - (1) it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacated office; or
 - (2) a resolution for the re-election of that director is put and lost.
- (j) The retirement of a director from office under rule 8.1(f) and the re-election of the director or the election of another person to that office (as the case may be) takes effect at the conclusion of the meeting at which the retirement and re-election or election occur.
- (k) The company may:

- (1) by resolution in accordance with section 203D(1) of the Corporations Act remove a director from office; and
 - (2) subject to rule 8.1(m), by resolution, fill the office vacated by a director who is removed under rule 8.1(k) by electing another person to that office.
- (l) (l) A person elected as a director under rule 8.1(k)(2) must retire under rule 8.1(f) on the same day that the director in whose place he or she was appointed would have had to retire under rule 8.1(f) if that director had not been removed from office under rule 8.1(k)(1).
 - (m) A person may only be elected to the office of a director at a general meeting if:
 - (1) he or she is a director retiring from office under rule 8.1(f) and standing for re-election at that meeting;
 - (2) he or she has been nominated by the directors for election at that meeting;
 - (3) if the person is a member, he or she has at least 30 days before the meeting served on the company a notice signed by him or her signifying his or her desire to be a candidate for election at that meeting; or
 - (4) whether or not the person is a member, some member intending to nominate him or her for election at that meeting has at least 35 days before the meeting served on the company a notice signed by the member and signifying the member's intention to nominate the person for election, which is accompanied by a notice signed by the person and signifying his or her consent to the nomination.

- (b) The remuneration of a director:
- (1) may be a stated salary or a fixed sum for attendance at each meeting of directors or both; or
 - (2) may be a share of a fixed sum determined by the company in general meeting to be the remuneration payable to all directors, which is to be divided between the directors in the proportions agreed between them or, failing agreement, equally,

- (e) If a director renders or is called upon to perform extra services or to make any special exertions in connection with the affairs of the company, the directors may arrange for a special remuneration to be paid to that director, either in addition to or in substitution for that director's remuneration under rule 8.3(a).
- (f) Nothing in rule 8.3(a) restricts the remuneration to which a director may be entitled as an officer of the company or of a related body corporate in a capacity other than director, which may be either in addition to or in substitution for that director's remuneration under rule 8.3(a).
- (g) The directors may:
- (1) at any time after a director dies or otherwise ceases to hold office as a director, pay to the director or a legal personal representative, spouse, relative or dependant of the director, in addition to the remuneration of that director under rule 8.3(a), a pension or lump sum payment in respect of past services rendered by that director; and
 - (2) cause the company to enter into a contract with the director for the purpose of providing for or giving effect to such a payment.

- (c) The directors may exercise the voting rights conferred by shares in any body corporate held or owned by the company in such manner in all respects as the directors think fit (including voting in favour of any resolution appointing a director as a director or other officer of that body corporate or voting for the payment of remuneration to the directors or other officers of that body corporate) and a director may, if permitted by law, vote in favour of the exercise of those voting rights notwithstanding that he or she is, or may be about to be appointed, a director or other officer of that other body corporate and, as such, interested in the exercise of those voting rights.
- (d) A director is not disqualified merely because of being a director from contracting with the company in any respect including, without limitation:
