Change in Substantial Shareholdings-OZ Minerals Limited sells to Institutional and other Investors

Royalco Resources Limited has been advised by OZ Minerals that it has on sold its shareholding (10 million shares) in Royalco to various investors.

"I take this opportunity to thank OZ Minerals for its support over the past few years and trust that our corporate paths may cross in future periods in the same professional manner as it has done in the past." Royalco's Executive Chairman, Peter Topham said.

" This transaction will also potentially benefit shareholders as it should assist in adding greater liquidity to trading in our shares on the ASX".

About Royalco (ASX:RCO) : Royalco holds a portfolio of ten royalty interests as well as exploration interests in the Philippines. This profitable model is unique for an Australian listed public company.
