CERTIFICATE OF RECOGNITION

Richmond Mining Limited is very pleased to advise that the Company's proposed mining operation at Buena Vista has been acknowledged by the Northern Nevada Development Authority as one of a handful of new businesses which Nevada Governor, Brian Sandoval, said should be recognised as a business enterprise that deserves recognition for "sound business practices and valuable economic impact to our local communities."

Richmond Mining Limited/Nevada Iron LLC was one of only two new mining operations to be recognised at a recent award ceremony by the Northern Nevada Development Authority for its "commitment to economic development and building a better quality of life in the Sierra Region of Nevada."

The award ceremony was hosted by the Northern Nevada Development Authority at the Genoa Lakes Golf Club near the historic Nevada town of Genoa. The ceremony attracted over 200 business and political leaders from throughout northern Nevada, including the County Manager of Churchill County who presented Richmond Mining Limited/Nevada Iron LLC with a special certificate of recognition for its proposed magnetite operations in Churchill County, Nevada.

Representatives of United States Senator Harry Reid and United States Senator Dean Heller also presented Richmond Mining/Nevada Iron LLC with certificates of Senatorial Recognition for the company's effort to strengthen the economy of the "Silver State".

Carson City-based Northern Nevada Development Authority which serves northwestern Nevada strives to assist new and existing businesses to succeed and recognises the accomplishments of those businesses that contribute to the economic well-being of Northern Nevada.

The Company's Managing Director, Mr Max Nind, said "the endorsement of the project by the Northern Nevada Development Authority is further evidence of the potential with which the local, state and federal authorities view the proposed operations at Buena Vista."

Mr Nind further stated that "this certificate of recognition demonstrates that Buena Vista is a development priority within the mining friendly state of Nevada."
