FOUR MILE PROJECT NATIVE TITLE MINING AGREEMENT LITIGATION SETTLED

The directors of Alliance Resources Limited are pleased to announce that the litigation concerning the native title agreement for the Four Mile Project (NTMA), currently before the South Australian Supreme Court, has now settled.

The terms of the settlement are confidential.

The litigation is now resolved and the NTMA has been registered by the South Australian Mining Registrar. It is expected that a mining lease for the Four Mile Project will issue shortly thereafter.

For and on behalf of the Board.
