Extension of Banking Facilities – 2 year term debt

Pulse Health Limited (ASX : PHG) has today announced it has signed an Agreement for Extension of its Banking Facilities with its principal financier, National Australia Bank Limited (NAB).

PHG advises that its term debt has been extended until 31 December 2013, a two year extension from its previous expiry (which was extended until 20 January 2012) of 31 December 2011.

As part of the renewal process, the company agreed to repay an additional $0.2m in term debt (from internally generated cash flow) and will increase its monthly amortisation from $40,000 per month to $60,000 per month from 1 July 2012 and $80,000 per month from 1 July 2013.

This is the first time since 2008 that the company has executed a term debt facility for a period greater than 12 months and demonstrates the continued improvement in EBITDA and the PHG Balance Sheet.
