

14 December 2012

Quickflix to stream to BlackBerry devices in Australia and New Zealand

Quickflix subscription and pay for view services to be available on BlackBerry 10 OS devices in first quarter of 2013

Sydney, Australia: Quickflix Limited (ASX: QFX) and Research In Motion today announced a partnership to make the Quickflix digital service available through connected BlackBerry 10 OS L-Series, N-Series and new generation devices in the first quarter of 2013.

The partnership will allow Blackberry users to access Quickflix streaming and watch unlimited movies instantly, on demand for one low monthly subscription fee or by pay per view for the latest new release movies. In the rapid deployment to Blackberry, Quickflix is able to leverage its existing technology platform and solutions.

In a statement, Quickflix Chairman and CEO Stephen Langsford said "We are delighted to be introducing our digital streaming to BlackBerry devices as we continue to provide consumers the most accessible movie streaming service in the market."

-END-

For any enquiries, please contact:

Stephen Langsford

Chairman and CEO

Quickflix Limited

+61 8 9347 4944

stephen@quickflix.com.au

About Quickflix

Quickflix (www.quickflix.com.au) is Australia's leading online movie company offering subscription to the largest range of movies and TV shows delivered as DVD or Blu-ray by mail or streamed instantly on-demand from a library of hundreds of movies & TV series direct to PCs, Apple Macs and a growing range of connected TVs, game consoles, iPad, iPhone and other devices. Pay-per-view streaming for the latest release movies and TV is also available on selected devices. In New Zealand Quickflix streaming is available at www.quickflix.co.nz.

