Managing Director's Resignation

Silver Swan Group Limited (ASX:SWN) advises that Dr. Susan Vearncombe has resigned as Managing Director.

David Archer, Executive Chairman of Silver Swan said today 'Susan has served the Company now for over four years and was instrumental in establishing the Company as a respected and technically excellent exploration group. She leaves a solid legacy with a highly competent team of exploration professionals. She has guided the Company into expanding its range of activities into the highly prospective Iberian Peninsula where we are exploring the promising La Codosera Project for gold'.

The Executive Chairman will now lead the Company and continue to implement Dr. Vearncombe's expansion into new and promising overseas exploration terrains.
