ASX Markets Announcements
Australian Securities Exchange

Minemakers Takeover Bid – Correction to Earlier Announcement

In its release to ASX earlier today the Company stated “Meanwhile, the bidder’s statement lodged with the ASX last night appears to be incomplete”. This was based on the fact that the bidder’s statement lodged by Minemakers Limited yesterday did not contain the offer date and offer close date and other related matters. However ASIC Class Order [CO 01/1543] permits such information to be omitted from a bidder’s statement lodged with ASIC and ASX and served on the Company provided the information is contained in the bidder’s statement subsequently sent to the Company’s shareholders. The Company therefore withdraws the statement.
