Re : Request for trading halt

WestSide Corporation Ltd (WestSide) requests that its ordinary shares (ASX Code: WCL) be placed in trading halt from the commencement of trading on 6 March 2012 until the commencement of trading on 8 March 2012.

The trading halt is requested pending finalisation of underwriting arrangements for a significant offer of new shares ("Offer"). WestSide is concerned that while in the process of finalising commitments, some market participants may become aware of the details of the proposed Offer.

For the purpose of ASX Listing Rule 17.1, WestSide also provides the following information:

- WestSide considers the size and composition of the Offer to be material to the Company's affairs and expects to be able to announce full details of the Offer on Thursday, 8 March 2012; and
- WestSide is not aware of any reason why the trading halt should not be granted or of any other information necessary to inform the market about the trading halt.

Please contact me if you require any further information.

Yours sincerely
