Managing Director's Share Trading Intentions

Wotif Group's Managing Director, R M S Cooke, has advised the Company's Board that he intends in the course of the current financial year (and subject to any share trading restrictions that may apply to him) to sell up to 500,000 of his shares in the Company.

Mr Cooke has informed the Board that this sale is being made to fund a potential income tax liability arising from the exercise of options (in September 2010) held by him in the Company.
