About Atlantic Gold NL

Atlantic Gold is an ASX listed company (ASX: ATV) which aims to develop open pit gold deposits in Nova Scotia, the Touquoy and Cochrane Hill Gold Projects being the starting point. The extensive goldfields of Nova Scotia have never before been systematically approached in this way. The Company's skills are derived from a depth of experience in gold exploration, development and production mainly in Western Australia. The Company's principals have considerable previous experience in exploration in Atlantic Canada.
