

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT – 9 October 2013

Completion of Sale of interest in Templetons

On 17 September 2013, the Board of Tranzact Financial Services Limited announced its decision to sell its interest in the Templetons financial advisory business and indicated that the operating principal of Templetons had made a conditional offer to acquire Tranzact's interest.

The various conditions related to the transaction have been met, and the settlement has occurred on a basis consistent with that reflected in the 30 June 2013 financial statements, at a total settlement value of $3.6 million.

The Company will apply the proceeds of the sale initially to the retirement of debt, putting Tranzact in a strong net cash position.
