Clarification - JORC Table 1 Report Disclosures

Apollo Consolidated Limited (ASX: AOP, Company) refers to the Company's ASX Announcement dated 6 March 2014 'Exceptional Grade Soil Anomaly Confirmed at Seguela Project' and provides the following clarification in relation to the JORC Table 1 report at the back of the announcement:

Where commentary has been marked "NA", the relevant criteria mostly refer to drilling, and should be taken as "not applicable to the current announcement due to the fact that no drilling was undertaken".

With regard to "Other substantive exploration data" the answer "NA" should be taken as "not applicable as there is no additional information applicable to the current announcement that is not addressed in the text of the announcement".
