TRADE ME GROUP LIMITED

Interim CEO arrangement

Trade Me CEO Jon Macdonald will continue with the company beyond the end of 2018, to ensure continued good momentum in the business and a smooth transition to a new CEO.

In June, Jon announced his intention to stand down in December. However, with the recent private equity interest in Trade Me, he and the Board have agreed he will continue to lead the company on an interim basis.

Trade Me will announce any news of a new CEO appointment in due course.
