Skellerup adds director to the Board

Skellerup today announced the appointment to its Board of Alan Isaac, a well-respected director and business advisor.

Chairman Sir Selwyn Cushing said: "Alan brings considerable experience, vision and business acumen to Skellerup. Alan had a distinguished 35 year career with KPMG where he served as Chairman for the final 10 years of his tenure. Over this period and since Alan has served as a director and chairman for a number of successful businesses plus national and international sporting organisations."

The appointment will increase Skellerup's board to six directors and raise the number of independent directors to four.
