Canada

This document constitutes an “exempt offering document” as defined in and for the purposes of applicable Canadian securities laws. No prospectus has been filed with any securities commission or similar regulatory authority in Canada in connection with the offer and sale of the Bonds. No securities commission or similar regulatory authority in Canada has reviewed or in any way passed upon this document or on the merits of the Bonds and any representation to the contrary is an offence.

Transpower is not a “reporting issuer” in Canada (as such term is defined in Canadian securities laws) and is not, and may never be, a reporting issuer in any province or territory of Canada and there currently is no public market in Canada for any of the Bonds, and one may never develop.

Certain of the underwriters and/or dealers acting on behalf of Transpower may provide commercial banking, financial advisory and/or investment banking services to Transpower and its affiliates, from time to time, for which they may receive customary fees and expenses. To the extent that such services have been provided, a portion of the net proceeds from the Initial Offering may be used, in whole or in part, to repay indebtedness to such underwriters and/or dealers. Accordingly, Transpower may be considered to be a “connected issuer” and/or “related issuer” of the underwriters and/or dealers as such terms are defined in National Instrument 33-105 Underwriting Conflicts.

Resale Restrictions

The offer and sale of the Bonds in Canada is being made on a private placement basis only and is exempt from the requirement that the issuer prepares and files a prospectus under applicable Canadian securities laws. Any resale of Bonds acquired by a Canadian investor in this offering must be made in accordance with applicable Canadian securities laws, which may vary depending on the relevant jurisdiction, and which may require resales to be made in accordance with Canadian prospectus requirements, a statutory exemption from the prospectus requirements, in a transaction exempt from the prospectus requirements or otherwise under a discretionary exemption from the prospectus requirements granted by the applicable local Canadian securities regulatory authority. These resale restrictions may under certain circumstances apply to resales of the Bonds outside of Canada.

Representations of Purchasers

Each Canadian investor who purchases the Bonds will be deemed to have represented to Transpower and any underwriters and/or dealer from whom a purchase confirmation is received, as applicable, that the investor (i) is purchasing as principal, or is deemed to be purchasing as principal in accordance with applicable Canadian securities laws, for investment only and not with a view to resale or redistribution; (ii) is an “accredited investor” as such term is defined in section 1.1 of National Instrument 45-106 Prospectus Exemptions or, in Ontario, as such term is defined in section 73.3(1) of the Securities Act (Ontario); and (iii) is a “permitted client” as such term is defined in section 1.1 of National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations.

Rights of Action for Damages or Rescission

If, in connection with a distribution of an eligible foreign security as defined in Ontario Securities Commission Rule 45-501 Ontario Prospectus and Registration Exemptions and in Multilateral Instrument 45-107 Listing Representation and Statutory Rights of Action Disclosure Exemptions, Transpower, or any underwriter and/or dealer acting on behalf of Transpower, delivers to a Canadian investor an offering document that constitutes an offering memorandum under applicable securities laws in Canada, such Canadian investor may have, depending on the province or territory of Canada in which the trade was made to the Canadian investor, remedies for rescission or damages if the offering memorandum (including any amendment thereto) contains a misrepresentation, provided that the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the Canadian investor within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the Canadian investor’s province or territory. Canadian investors should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the applicable province or territory for the particulars of these rights or consult with a legal advisor.

Post-Trade Reporting

The offer and sale of the Bonds in Canada will require that Transpower complete and file a Form 45-106F1 Report of Exempt Distribution (Form 45-106F1) with the securities regulatory authority or regulator in each jurisdiction of Canada where a distribution of the Bonds is made. Schedule 1 of Form 45-106F1 requires certain information pertaining to each Canadian investor to be disclosed (including the investor’s name, address, telephone number, email address, if provided, and the number and type of securities purchased, the total purchase price paid for such securities, the date of the purchase and specific details of the prospectus exemption relied upon under applicable securities laws to complete such purchase, including how the purchaser qualifies for such exemption). Each Canadian investor who purchases the Bonds agrees to provide Transpower with any information required to be included in Form 45-106F1 in connection with the sale of the Bonds in Canada. Further, each Canadian investor acknowledges that (i) its name, address, telephone number and other specified information, including the number of Bonds it has purchased and the aggregate purchase price paid by the investor, may be disclosed to the applicable Canadian securities regulatory authorities or regulators and may become available to the public in accordance with the requirements of applicable Canadian laws, (ii) the information is being collected indirectly by the securities regulatory authority or regulator under the authority granted to it under the securities legislation of the applicable jurisdiction, (iii) the collection of the information is for the purposes of the administration and enforcement, and (iv) the contact information for the public officer in each jurisdiction of Canada who can answer questions about the regulators’ indirect collection of information may be found in Form 45-106F1. By purchasing the Bonds, the Canadian investor has authorized the indirect collection of the information by the applicable securities regulatory authority or regulator in Canada and consents to the disclosure of such information.

Part B – General Selling Restrictions

The Bonds may only be offered for sale or sold in New Zealand in conformity with all applicable laws and regulations in New Zealand. No Bonds may be offered for sale or sold in any other country or jurisdiction except in conformity with all applicable laws and regulations of that country or jurisdiction. This Pricing Supplement may not be published, delivered or distributed in or from any country or jurisdiction except under circumstances which will result in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations in that country or jurisdiction. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph applies to initial and subsequent sales.

Indemnity

By its subscription for or a purchase of the Bonds, each bondholder agrees to indemnify Transpower, the Lead Manager and the Supervisor and each of their respective directors, officers and employees for any expense, loss, cost, liability or expenses sustained or incurred by Transpower, the Lead Manager or the Supervisor, as the case may be, as a result of the breach by that bondholder of the selling restrictions set out above.
