Comvita announces CFO resignation

Comvita Limited (NZX:CVT) today announces that Chief Financial Officer, Nigel Greenwood will be leaving the company effective 31 December 2025.

Nigel joined Comvita in 2020 during a period of significant transformation and has been a pivotal member of the executive team, overseeing the company's financial strategy, investor relations, and corporate services.

During the remainder of his tenure at Comvita, Nigel will continue to support the business through the FY25 audit, and is focused on strengthening key financial functions, particularly in the important Southeast Asia and China markets.

Comvita Chair, Bridget Coates, stated: "On behalf of the Board and the entire Comvita team, I extend our heartfelt thanks to Nigel for his significant contribution. His financial, commercial, primary sector and listed company experience; along with team leadership skills and dedication have been invaluable to Comvita. We appreciate his commitment to assisting Comvita, through the transition to the new leadership. We wish him all the best for the future."

Decisions around a permanent replacement in this role will be led by incoming CEO Karl Gradon.

Background information

Comvita (NZX:CVT) was founded in 1974/5, with a purpose to heal and protect the world through the natural power of the hive. With a team of 400+ people globally, united with more than 1.6 billion bees, we are the global market leader in Mānuka honey and bee consumer goods. Seeking to understand, but never to alter, we test and verify all our bee-product ingredients are of the highest quality in our own government-recognised and accredited laboratory. We are growing scientific knowledge on Mānuka trees, the many benefits of Mānuka honey and propolis and bee welfare. We have planted millions of native trees, improving our natural ecosystems and biodiversity, and mitigating climate change in conjunction with our focus on carbon emissions reduction, while helping ensure the supply of high quality Mānuka honey. In 2023 Comvita was certified B Corp, a global community of like-minded companies that strive to balance profit with purpose, seeking to use business as a force for good. Comvita has operations in Australia, China, North America, Southeast Asia, and Europe – and of course, Aotearoa New Zealand, where our bees are thriving.
