Sylvia Park galleria to open on 15 October

Sylvia Park shopping centre's galleria expansion is set to open at 9am on Thursday 15 October, Kiwi Property announced today.

Spanning over 20,000 square metres and featuring a carefully curated selection of almost 60 stores, the $277 million development will make Sylvia Park's retail offering bigger and better than ever before. The galleria will also feature 'The Terrace at Sylvia Park', an expansive new dining precinct offering an exciting range of food and beverage options.

The opening of the new development will take the total number of stores at Sylvia Park to 250, the most of any shopping centre in the country. With 5,000 car parks, direct train and bus linkages and the Carbine Road entry now reopened, Sylvia Park offers unparalleled access.

Clive Mackenzie, CEO Kiwi Property, said Sylvia Park's expansion would enable it to continue attracting shoppers from across Auckland, and beyond.

"Sylvia Park is already New Zealand's favourite shopping centre and we want to continue raising the bar. The galleria will deliver more stores, more choice and more excitement. It's never been easier for customers to enjoy the brands they know and love – all under the one roof."
