Regulation of online casinos in New Zealand

The New Zealand Government has today announced a high-level approach to regulating online casinos designed to minimise harm, support tax collection, and provide consumer protections to New Zealanders. The new regulatory system is expected to be in place from early 2026.

Details of the Government's high-level approach are available at <https://www.beehive.govt.nz/release/regulating-online-casinos-approach>. Further details are expected to be announced later this year.

The SkyCity Entertainment Group remains supportive of the regulation of online casino gaming in New Zealand with an emphasis on strong host responsibility and delivering community benefits in New Zealand.
