Management update: GM Finance and Shared Services

Kiwi Property advises that Steve Cooper, GM Finance and Shared Services, has resigned to pursue an external opportunity back in the technology sector. He will leave the company on 2 October 2020.

Clive Mackenzie, Chief Executive Officer, said: "Steve has made an important contribution to Kiwi Property, including realigning our Finance and Shared Services function to better support the Company's mixed-use strategy. While we are sorry to see Steve go, we wish him all the best in his future endeavours."
