ASX:BCN

20 February 2025

An aerial photograph of a large-scale industrial mining or processing facility, likely a lithium refinery, set in a vast, flat, arid landscape. The facility features numerous large cylindrical storage tanks, complex piping, conveyor belts, and several buildings. In the foreground, a parking lot contains several vehicles, including a white van and a white pickup truck. The background shows large mounds of material, possibly ore or waste, under a clear sky. A prominent white sunburst graphic is centered over the facility, with rays extending upwards and outwards.
