HARVEST TECHNOLOGY GROUP CFO TRANSITION

February 14, 2022: Harvest Technology Group Limited (ASX:HTG) (Company, Group) wishes to announce a transition of its Group Chief Financial Officer (CFO) role.

The Group's current CFO, Mr. Colin Napier, has retired from the CFO role and will remain with the Company until March 2022 to support the Board and senior management during the transition.

The company is pleased to announce that Mr. Craig Byron, Senior Financial Advisor to the Group, will assume the CFO role from Colin.

Craig is a highly experienced CFO and chartered accountant with over 30 years' experience gained across a wide variety of industry sectors, both within Australia and internationally, in senior finance, business development and commercial roles and operating at Board level. He more recently worked for LS Saddleirs and Minderoo / Tattarang Group. Craig's strong financial and commercial experience makes him an ideal internal successor for the role.

The Board sincerely thanks Colin for his contribution to the Group and his guidance and support. The Board congratulates Craig on his appointment and welcomes him to the Company's Leadership team.

"Colin has been with us since the formation of the Company and has been a key driver in achieving Phase 1 and transitioning to Phase 2 of our strategic plan. We wish Colin all the best for his future endeavours", said Paul Guilfoyle, Group Chief Executive Officer.
