TRADING HALT

The Directors have requested the Company's securities be placed in a trading halt under Listing Rule 17.1, pending the release of an announcement relating to a restructure of the board, following the resignation of the Directors/Company Secretary.

The Directors expect to release the announcement before market opening on Wednesday 17th February 2016, at which time the trading halt will cease.

The Directors are not aware of any reason why the trading halt should not be granted.
