Mr Baghdadi is demonstrating a strong belief in the Company's future success. This action highlights his long-term commitment to Dateline's projects and aligns leadership's interests closely with those of fellow shareholders. The Board considers this option exercise a clear indication of the Managing Director's confidence about the Company's growth trajectory and the belief in the potential for high grade REEs based on the discovery results to date and the potential to unlock additional hidden gold bearing breccia pipes.

Colosseum Gold & REE Project – Key Asset in Focus

Proceeds from the option exercise will contribute to advancing Dateline's flagship Colosseum Gold and Rare Earth Elements Project in California. The Colosseum Project is a past-producing gold mine that has recently shown multiple indicators for REE mineralization, making it a unique dual-commodity opportunity in the Company's portfolio. Located in a region known for both gold production and critical minerals, the Colosseum Project represents a significant growth opportunity for Dateline. The Company is currently focused on exploration and evaluation activities at Colosseum, aiming to unlock additional gold resources and assess the extent of rare earth element mineralization. Mr Baghdadi's continued investment in Dateline reflects his confidence in the Colosseum Project's potential to deliver long-term shareholder value.

Mr Baghdadi commented: "Exercising these options was an easy decision because I have great confidence in Dateline's long term future. Our project is a high-quality asset with tremendous upside. Increasing my stake in the Company underscores my commitment to our long-term vision and growth and it enhances the company finances by bringing the total cash at bank and option exercise commitments to almost $9,000,000."

The Board of Dateline Resources welcomes Mr Baghdadi's additional investment. His ongoing support strengthens the Company's financial position as it progresses its project, and it underscores the alignment of management's interests with those of shareholders. Dateline remains focused on delivering value through the development of its core asset, and this increased management investment is a strong indicator of the Company's positive outlook.
