SRG Global Awarded Multi-Disciplinary Maintenance Contracts valued at ~$100m

Highlights:

- SRG Global awarded a five-year term contract with Iron Bridge Operations
- SRG Global awarded a multi-disciplinary maintenance contract with Visy Industries Australia

SRG Global Ltd ('SRG Global' or 'the Company', ASX: SRG) is pleased to announce it has been awarded multi-disciplinary maintenance contracts with Iron Bridge Operations and Visy Industries Australia.

The five-year term contract with Iron Bridge, an unincorporated joint venture between Fortescue Metals Group (Fortescue) subsidiary FMG Iron Bridge and Formosa Steel IB, is a Master Agreement for Maintenance and Shutdown Services to provide rope access and electrical maintenance requirements across its new magnetite project in Western Australia.

The maintenance contract with Visy Industries Australia is for the provision of specialist refractory installation incorporating multiple skilled trades at their Adelaide glass manufacturing facility.

The combined value of the contracts is ~$100m commencing immediately.

David Macgeorge, Managing Director commented "We are excited to be expanding our relationship with Fortescue and play an integral role in the maintenance of the Iron Bridge joint venture operation, which is such an innovative and significant project for Western Australia. We are equally pleased to be selected by Visy Industries Australia to deliver the critical maintenance services required for their glass manufacturing operations in Adelaide. These contracts represent another significant step forward in our strategy to expand services with blue-chip clients across multiple industries and build on our portfolio of annuity earnings agreements."
