Dr. Patti Dare and Sarah Neeley Join Titomic USA Leadership Team

Huntsville, Alabama – Titomic USA, Inc., the USA subsidiary of Titomic Limited, a global leader in cold spray additive manufacturing and kinetic fusion technologies, is proud to announce the appointments of Dr. Patti Dare as President and Sarah Neeley as Chief Operating Officer (COO). These appointments mark a pivotal step in advancing Titomic's strategic objectives and operational growth in the United States.

Dr. Patti Dare, who has been working with Titomic since July 2024, is an accomplished leader with an extensive background in strategic planning, business development, and operational management, and will oversee all USA operations as President of Titomic USA. Reporting to the CEO, Dr. Dare will spearhead the company's efforts in building a robust market presence across critical sectors, including aerospace, defense, and energy. Her leadership will focus on driving innovation, expanding partnerships, and scaling operations to align with Titomic's global mission of delivering cutting-edge manufacturing solutions.

Dr. Dare brings significant expertise from her tenure at major defense and aerospace companies, where she held leadership positions focusing on strategic initiatives and organizational growth. Her experience includes spearheading complex programs at Lockheed Martin, Raytheon Technologies, The Boeing Company, and Honeywell, where she successfully drove innovation in advanced manufacturing and built strong relationships with USA government and defense agencies. Her deep understanding of the defense sector and her track record of forging strategic partnerships will be instrumental in establishing Titomic USA as a premier player in advanced manufacturing.

Sarah Neeley, joining as Chief Operating Officer for the U.S. business, brings a wealth of experience in production oversight, compliance, and process optimization. With a focus on enhancing operational efficiency and ensuring excellence across Titomic USA's production and delivery channels, Reporting to the President, her primary responsibilities will include implementing streamlined workflows, achieving operational milestones, and fostering a culture of continuous improvement.

Neeley has held critical operational roles at leading aerospace and defense companies, including Lexmark International, The Boeing Company and Raytheon Technologies. She was pivotal in managing large-scale production systems, driving efficiency in manufacturing operations, and ensuring compliance with rigorous industry standards. Her ability to lead high-performing teams and deliver results under complex regulatory environments aligns perfectly with Titomic USA's goals as it scales operations to meet growing demand in sectors that rely on advanced manufacturing innovations.
