Professional and Advisory Services Project Awards Update

Veris is pleased to announce that our most recent acquisition, Elton Consulting is performing well with circa $6.0 million of contracted work awarded since December 2017. This awarded work is to be completed for a broad spectrum client base including federal, state and local government, tier one developers and infrastructure contractors.

The awards extend over a number of projects and consist of various engagements across significant infrastructure, strategic planning, urban development and strategy projects in NSW, Victoria and Queensland, including:

- Sydney Metro Central Station – Laing O’Rourke – Provision of Stakeholder and Community Relations services
- Western Sydney Airport – Department of Infrastructure, Regional Development and Cities –Provision of Communication Services
- Inland Rail – Department of Infrastructure, Regional Development and Cities - Provision of communication advice for the Melbourne to Brisbane Inland Rail project

Commenting on Veris’ award, Managing Director Adam Lamond said:

“These awards are pleasing and validate the caliber of the services that the recent Elton acquisition offers. The scope of the consulting work offered by Elton Consulting Group not only adds to the Veris group’s revenue base but also supports our Vertical integration strategy.”
