

EXCITE ANNOUNCES CONTRACT WINS WITH DOHA FOR $676,000

Excite Technology Services Limited (Excite or the Company) (ASX:EXT) is pleased to announce it has secured contracts with the Department of Home Affairs (DOHA) via its wholly owned subsidiary CBIT Pty Limited to deliver advanced IT software solutions that will enhance DOHA's national digital forensics and investigative capabilities. This engagement highlights Excite's ongoing commitment to supporting government and enterprise clients with secure, high-performance technologies and locally delivered services tailored to critical operational needs.

The Department of Home Affairs (DOHA) is an Australian Government department responsible for national security, law enforcement, emergency management, border control, immigration, and cyber security. It plays a central role in protecting Australia's critical infrastructure and managing risks to national resilience.

Key terms of the agreement include:

- Total value of contracts $675,954.40.
- One-Year Term.
- Contract may be renewed for a further two periods.

-ends-

This announcement has been authorised by the Board

Further information please visit

<https://excitecyber.com>

Excite Technology Services investor relations contacts:

Steven Bliim

Executive Director and CFO

Excite Technology Services Limited

Steven.Bliim@excitecyber.com

About Excite Technology Services Limited

Excite offers comprehensive cybersecurity services, including threat prevention, managed cloud and IT services, specialist digital forensics, incident response, forensic investigations, and accredited training to ensure a safe Australia.