ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

26 October 2017

Lapsing of Minor Tenements

AustSino Resources Group Limited (ASX:ANS) advises that the Company has allowed the following minor prospecting licences to lapse as at 11.59pm on Wednesday, 25 October 2017:

- Prospecting Licences 52/1329, 52/1330, 52/1331, 52/1332, 52/1333 and 52/1342.

The licences were allowed to lapse at the end of their eight year term after ANS concluded that there is no significant iron mineralisation to warrant conversion of the licence areas to Mining Lease.

There is no reduction to ANS' stated JORC compliant resources as disclosed in our annual report and ANS is confident that not retaining these licences will not have any negative impact on our exploration activities going forward.

ANS continues to hold the following tenement positions:

Mt Padbury, Western Australia

Held by Desert Resources Pty Ltd (100%):

EL 52/1862
EL 52/1976
EL 52/2279

Peak Hill, Western Australia

Held by Desert Resources Pty Ltd (100%):

EL 52/1557
EL 52/1860
EL 52/2368
EL 52/2993
M 52/1068
