

ASX & MEDIA RELEASE7 July 2015*Service Stream renews solar PV contract with Origin Energy

Leading essential network services company Service Stream Limited (ASX: SSM) is pleased to announce that it has renewed its solar PV contract with Origin Energy (Origin), Australia's leading integrated energy company.

Under the new agreement, Service Stream will continue to partner with Origin for the provision of solar PV installation and associated field services for a further three years. Whilst the contract does not provide guaranteed volumes, Service Stream estimates the value of this agreement to be in the order of $50 million over the 3 year term. The new arrangement also provides for two contract extensions of one-year each.

Service Stream's Managing Director, Leigh Mackender, said "This new agreement strengthens our ongoing relationship with Origin and confirms Service Stream's Energy & Water division as one of the country's leading national solar PV specialists. Energy & Water has installed approximately 45,000 kw of capacity since commencing solar PV field services for Origin in 2010."
